HOW TO DRAW A THROW-UP  By Graffiti Diplomacy

A throw-up or throwie is a type of graffiti design that is drawn with overlapping bubble letters. A throw-up usually has two to three letters and is generally drawn or painted with two colors.

STEP 1. Sketch out your bubble letters with the edges overlapping. Keep the edges smooth and rounded.

STEP 2. Re-draw the letters with a dark, sharp outline. Erase any unneeded guidelines or trace your drawing onto a clean sheet of paper.

STEP 3. Add a little drop shadow or 3-D along one side of each letter.

STEP 4. Draw an outline surrounding the whole word, including the drop shadow. Practice drawing this throw-up many times until you can draw it very quickly.
